Estate of Lewis v. Lewis and Credit Union, 2018 PESC 30

The motions judge held she had the jurisdiction to hear a motion requesting the application be converted to an action. The court denied the Credit Union's motion to convert the application to an action in its entirety, but rather bifurcated the issues and ordered that some issues be heard by way of application, while other issues would, if necessary, proceed to an applications judge who could further determine whether those issues would be converted to a trial.

Urquhart v. Loane, 2016 PECA 15

The court stated the general practice is that counter applications will be heard at the same time and have the same court file number. Relying upon R. 38.04(3) and Practice Note 7 the court found the issues raised in the respondent's application were properly before the court.

Guptill v. Noble, 2006 PESCTD 29

Rule 38.04(3) is to be interpreted as meaning that counter-applications may be filed.

Ward v. University of Prince Edward Island (1997), 157 Nfld. & P.E.I.R. 129 (P.E.I.S.C.-T.D.)

Rule 38 applies to applications for judicial review. The Rule addresses affidavit evidence within applications and as some affidavit evidence may be admissible for a particular purpose in an application, leave is not required before the affidavit is filed. Any disagreement with respect to the admissibility of affidavit evidence filed in an application for judicial review can be addressed as a preliminary matter before factums are filed.
