

Notice to the Profession, the Public and the Media regarding Court Operations following Hurricane Fiona

September 29, 2022

As a result of recovery efforts across the province, all courthouses now have electricity and all except the Georgetown courthouse have communications capability. The Provincial Court, the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeal will resume normal operations on Monday, October 3, 2022. It is expected that the Georgetown courthouse will be operational, subject to further notice from Provincial Court.

Requests for adjournments will be considered on a case by case basis. For those matters which are scheduled virtually, or by telephone, the courts will address each matter on an individual basis, depending on the communication tools available to the parties and/or their lawyers.

If a party is unable to attend, they should contact:

- for Supreme Court, the trial coordinator at (902) 368-6023;
- for the Court of Appeal, the docket clerk at (902) 368-6024; or
- for the Provincial Court, the court clerk at (902) 368-6693.

The courts may still be operating with limited staff. Once again, your patience is appreciated.
